ORDER VACATING FINAL JUDGMENT

Ordinarily, after the jury reaches a verdict in a patent infringement action, the undersigned promptly issues a final judgment. That is because, ordinarily, there remain no issues to decide. In promptly issuing a final judgment here, however, the undersigned failed to appreciate that, at a minimum, injunctive relief and affirmative defenses must first be decided. The final judgment is therefore VACATED. All previously set motion and briefing schedules remain in effect.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 14, 2023.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
